Present your proposal to the Department Chair, including this worksheet, and a rationale in which you explain how courses constituting the modification form a unified, coherent course of study (see also Regulations for the Modified Major, per ORC: <http://dartmouth.smartcatalogiq.com/en/current/orc/Regulations/Undergraduate-Study/Requirements-for-the-Degree-of-Bachelor-of-Arts/Modified-Major>)

How to Declare your Religion Major, Minor, or Modified Major:

1. Request a meeting with Religion Department Chair, Professor Reiko Ohnuma. Be prepared to discuss your academic interests, specific courses that you would like to take, and any questions you may have regarding the major. Exemptions, special permissions, and proposals need to be addressed by Professor Ohnuma, as well.
2. Review the requirements of the major, minor, or modified major and fill in your worksheet (see links below) and DegreeWorks major planner with your proposed course of study.
3. Bring the completed worksheet to your meeting with Professor Ohnuma.
4. Confirm your proposed course of study for approval in DegreeWorks.

Watch for occasional email announcements (events of interest, Major degree requirements, Commencement, etc) from the Religion Department.
